

Greetings Fellow Music Enthusiast!

Would you like to receive late-breaking news on your mobile device?
We're not talking all the time, but cool news worth knowing.

Here's a sample of the 5 text messages we've sent out to 118 list members in the last three months

(which gives you an idea of how often we're talking about):

- 7/10: New Paramore single streaming
- 6/23: Original members of Evanescence (sans Amy) unite
- 6/22: Galactic Cowboys Reunite for 3 August Shows in TX
- 5/4: New Group From Still Remains & The Showdown
- 5/1: New Zao album streaming

We carefully choose what we deem to be important, timely, short and worthy of your attention. In other words, we won't send them all the time. That would be annoying.

Sign up by simply emailing news@hmmag.com and telling us your mobile # and its carrier (AT&T, Sprint, Verizon, etc). You can un-subscribe by emailing us at the same address.
